

Bureau of Land Management Eastern States

Wildland Fire

We take an active role in wildfire suppression, fuels reduction, education, and outreach.

We are home to an elite Type 1 wildland firefighting crew that responds to wildfires across the country and assists other State and Federal agencies as needed.

We work with communities, rural and volunteer fire departments, and partners to increase their preparedness, “Firewise” awareness and to help prevent catastrophic wildfires.